

Future Policy Changes

In the event that Management Company adopts any policy changes that differ from the present terms of its contract, Management Company will communicate these changes to owner by one or more means of communication and will specifically inform owner how it proposes to amend the management contract. If owner does not object to Management Company in writing within thirty (30) days of such notice of the policy change, Management Company will consider such change or changes to be incorporated into the terms of the management contract and will proceed accordingly. If owner objects to such policy change, it will be necessary for Management Company to negotiate a new management contract with owner, and within a reasonable time Management Company will provide owner with a proposed contract for review and approval.
